1.1.12adv.Pr6

a. Research, develop and apply personal strategies of visualization, motor imagery, and breath to become more aware of the relationships that exist between the body and mind.

b. Initiate, plan and direct rehearsals with attention to technical details applying rehearsal strategies for individual come set a piece on them. The students have already worked with the choreographer/learned the choreography and in this lesson they are in the final stages of cleaning the piece where they define the effort qualities within the movement.

Prior Knowledge:

Students in this course have had at least 3 years of dance training. They have studied Laban Movement Analysis and have experience using Laban's Movement Efforts to apply nuance and intention to their movement through improvisation and other choreographed works.

Objectives:

Students will be able to apply teacher and self-given Laban Movement Effort direction to clarify quality and nuance in their movement

Suggested Activities:

Review (2 minutes)

• Laban's 8 Effort Actions

Warm-up while defining the efforts given to each exercise (38 minutes)

- Overall strengthening exercises (Punch)
 - Jogging, lunging series, stabilization exercises, core stabilizers, planks
- Center exercises
 - Roll downs (Glide)
 - · Flat backs (Press)

and ensemble work that enhance artistry, incorporate selfanalysis, and are solutions-oriented to achieve performance excellence.

- c. Refine performance skills using a broad repertoire of strategies for dynamic projection. Demonstrate and model leadership qualities, performance etiquette and performance practice during class, rehearsal and performance. Develop a professional portfolio (e.g., resume, head shot, social media platforms) that documents the rehearsal and performance process with fluency in professional dance and production terminology. Analyze and evaluate the success of a performance.
- d. Design and organize the technical and production elements to collaboratively produce and fulfill the artistic intent of dance works in a variety of performance venues.

C-curves (Press)

- o Tendu (Dab)
- O Degage (Dab)
- Rond de Jambe (Float)
- Across the Floor
 - Leg Swings (Flick)
 - Prance (Punch)
 - Battements (Dab)

*Throughout the warm-up some exercises are repeated with an opposite effort quality so students can understand how to apply a different quality to the same movement.

Repertory Rehearsal (38 minutes)

- Students run a piece they have learned from a guest artist for an upcoming performance.
- Teacher identifies a section of the piece that needs clarification in the quality and/or movement sequences.
- Students go through the movement in that section of the piece clarifying what each move is and the Laban Effort Action so they can perform it with the same technical execution and quality.
- Students run the piece again while teacher records their run on video
- Students watch the video and are instructed to look for moments where movement quality can be defined further using Laban Effort Actions.
- Students work on the parts of the piece they feel needed clarification

	a. Formulate personal choreography with respect to its content and context. Reflect and analyze the variables that contributed to the personal perspectives presented in the dance work, and examine how exposure to various cultures influences individual, emotional, intellectual, and kinesthetic responses to dance works. b. Investigate and present ways in which dance can be used to communicate new perspectives and/or realizations about global issues, including global warming.	 Closure (2 minutes) Teacher asks students the following questions: What changed for you in the piece from the first run to the most recent run? What has become clearer for you in the movement?
